Fall Harvest Exhibit

Local artist Lilly Cleveland is exhibiting "Fall Harvest" at The Helen Bumpus Gallery during the months of October and November. Lilly, former president of the gallery, has received numerous awards. Recently she won Second Prize and Honorable Mention in watercolor at the Plymouth Guild Juried Show.

Her work has been shown in New England Watercolor Society and all over the South Shore. A new piece, "Waiting for Freedom" was accepted to the French Connection Show. Another painting, "Nocturne," is in the Invitational Show at the North River Art Association in Marshfield Hills. Lilly also teaches watercolor for beginners at the Ellison Center.

A reception will be held

Sunday, October 26, 2-4 p.m. in the Merry Room at the Duxbury Free Library.

The gallery's hours are: Mon-Thurs 10-8, Fri&Sat 10-5, Sun 1-5. The Helen Bumpus Gallery is solely supported by public donations. Admission is free, wheelchair accessible and all are welcome.
